HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.Indications point to a busy year for local Hibernians.More than 900 people attended the thirty-second annual ball given by Division 15 of Boston.The County Board meeting Wednesday night will be an interesting one, and not a member should be absent.National Director Butler will be given a hearty welcome by the Jeffersonville Hibernians next Tuesday night.Members of Division 3 of Buffalo presented the retiring President, Maurice J.
Flaherty, with a gold badge emblematic of the order.Wednesday evening the Ladies' Auxiliary will hear reports from the committees that were appointed to organize their dramatic club.Division 19 of Buffalo is desirous of being known as the "Banner division of Eric county." All its members are working toward that end.Division 3 meets Monday night. President Welsh requests all members to be present, as matters of importance will be submitted and voted upon.Division 2 of Dunkirk, N. Y., enjoyed a prosperous year in 1905. Not one member died or was dropped from the rolls and only one sick benefit was paid out.Louisville Hibernians are now determined upon having their own hall. They will not act hastily, but will carefully consider all propositions and plans submitted.During the latter part of this month the New Albany Hibernians will have a big meeting to be addressed by George J. Butler, member of the National Board of Directors.At Utica the members of Ladies' Auxiliary 11 dressed in quaint costumes for their recent installation. During the evening there were vocal and instrumental solos and choruses.Division 7 of Philadelphia at a recent meeting burned a mortgage of $1,000 that had been lifted from their property.
On the same evening the members presented President John Gillen a gold watch.Division 1 of Fall River, Mass., its retiring President, with a smoking service and suit case. He had been President for several years and his work was appreciated by the members.The division at Wilton, N. H., celebrated the anniversary of its incorporation by exemplifying the four degrees on a large class of candidates. After the meeting a banquet was given in honor of the State officers who went from Nashua to attend the celebration.The Ladies' Auxiliary of Eveleth, Minn., has arranged a novel but splendid way of building up the society. The members in turn give a euchre at which lunch is furnished. Every member pays ten cents, whether she attends or not.
Crowded houses are in order wherever the meetings have been held.The 150 prominent Catholics of Davenport, Iowa, who are stockholders in the Hibernian Hall Association, met recently and heard the annual reports of the officers. The association is in splendid shape. It was founded in 1889 and the hall was erected soon after. The building is of fine appearance and situated in the heart of the city. The assembly hall is declared to be the finest in the city for council purposes.

FATHER O'SULLIVAN.

The Rev. Father O'Sullivan, pastor of the Church of the Blessed Sacrament, who has been ill at St. Joseph's Infirmary for several weeks past, underwent a surgical operation this week. While his condition is improved he is still far from well.

CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

The Central Committee of the Catholic Knights of America will meet at St.
Mary's Hall, Eighth and Grayson streets, on Friday night. Matters of importance are to be discussed and a full attendance is desired.
